GIVE UNTIL IT FEELS GOOD

President Has Asked The People Of This Country To Comply With The Request Of The United War Board.

Michigan is ready and waiting for the opening gun of the United War Work Campaign to be fired on the morning of November 11. Thousands of workers throughout the state are of their toes and prepared to see that Michigan stands out as a shining light among her sister states.

It is this campaign which is the test of true patriotism; in which some slight sacrifice can be made for the boys who are fighting our battles in the trenches. The severest, accredited war relief agencies—Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., K. of C., Jewish Welfare Board, Salvation Army, American Library Association and the War Camp Community Service—have called upon the American people for $250,000,000 with which to carry on their work of relief.

President Wilson has asked that the people of this country comply with this request. Give, Give, Give until it feels good. It has been said that "it is better to give than receive." In this case those who give will receive the greatest reward, that of satisfaction in having helped to comfort some mother's son who has gone through the horrors of a bloody battle.

The purchasing of Liberty Bonds is a patriotic duty, but there is no sacrifice for you are receiving a high rate of interest on your money. The boys in the trenches are making the GREATEST SACRIFICE. During the week of November 11 every man, woman and child in the state will be offered an opportunity and privilege of making a monetary sacrifice. And, how little that is in comparison with the offer of the boys to give up their lives. Do not be a slacker. Back up the boys over there. They deserve it. If the collector does not approach you seek him out, for this is an opportunity and a privilege you cannot afford to miss.

VICTORY GIRLS RALLY TO SUPPORT OF U. W. W. C. DRIVE

"Every Girl Pulling For Victory" is Slogan of Young Women Who Are Doing Their "Bit" At Home.

New York, Nov. 4.—"Every girl pulling for Victory." This is the slogan of the Victory girls. "Everybody is doing something to win the war but me," a fourteen year old girl said. "I'm left out. I can't buy Liberty bonds or go to France as nurse."

It is for the "left out" girl who wants to make a real sacrifice for the men at the front, that Victory Girls "Earn and Give" division of the United War Work Campaign has been established.

Victory Girls is as much an army at home as the men in the service are an army wherever they are called. Like Victory Boys they are an "Earn and Give" division of the United War Work Campaign. When a girl enrolls she pledges herself to earn a stated sum for war work. This means that no girl, or boy either, can sit at home and do nothing. They can earn money that she or he has not earned.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rich, on Monday, November 11, a nine-pound son. Dr. Dutt, who assisted the stork in this visit reports that mother and son are doing nicely.

Apparently some of the election clerks in the doubtful districts are holding on to the ballots until they see how much of a majority their particular favorite candidates are in need of.

NEWS OF PEACE CELEBRATED WITH BIG DEMONSTRATION

NOT AN INDUSTRIAL PLANT IN CITY RUNS—STORES, ETC., ARE CLOSED—HALF HOLIDAY.

News of the signing of a truce by Germany and the acceptance by that country of the terms of armistice as laid down by the allies came into this city over the wires just about noon Thursday and Manager Jessie Pressley of the local branch of the Citizens Telephone Co., gave word to the girls in the office to spread the good news and by 12:30 o'clock every whistle, bell or other alarm sounding device in the city was in operation and as the noise continued it was further augmented by horns, hand and dinner bells, saws and other smaller articles which could be brought into play.

A crowd soon collected and flags appeared on every hand. Cheering and singing went up from the crowd and it gave evidence that the news of this step toward peace was something to be celebrated and people instead of going to work, remained to take part in and see what was going on. A few people went to the factories and mills but soon came back as the men in charge had caught the fever of patriotism and had gone over where the doings were going to be held. School children failed to go to school and the schools, too, took a half holiday.

Everybody caught the spirit of patriotism and the crowd ran wild, dragging tin cans about on the pavement, waving flags, singing, yelling and doing everything they could to have a good time celebrating.

The Belding band boys, under Director Geo. W. Holmes, were on the job and rendered some fine patriotic music during the earlier hours of the demonstration. John Martin, a business man of Grand Rapids, who happened to be in the city, mounted upon a high stool, led the crowd in singing as the band played patriotic airs.

Mayor Elmer E. Fales declared the ban on everything lifted and proclaimed the day a holiday. He then led a monster parade composed of perhaps something like 2,000 people, each one, or at least about 95 per cent of them carrying a flag. Fully as many people stood on the sidewalk viewing the parade as it formed and marched first east to the Belding Memorial library, then reversed and marched to the Ford garage on West Main street, then back to the grand stand east of the Banner-News office, where Nathan F. Simpson, a former warden of Jackson prison, delivered a patriotic address to the crowd.

Along toward 5 o'clock in the afternoon the crowd began to thin out and the street decorated with flags and bunting and the pavement littered with old tin cans, pans, etc., with here and there a badly battered and just about used up effigy of one Kaiser Wilhelm lying along became so that the regular traffic could resume its course with nothing more than the usual interruption and the citizens settled down to normal, tired but well satisfied to have taken part in the demonstration.

SCHWAB DECLARES OUTLOOK IS BRIGHTER EVERY DAY

Head of U. S. Shipping Board Declares Americans Must Support United War Work Campaign As An Incentive to Boys.

New York, Nov. 4.—Declaring that "every day makes the outlook for victory brighter," Charles M. Schwab, director general of the United States Shipping Board, today appealed for support of the United War Work Campaign on November 11-18. In a letter to the campaign headquarters of the National Catholic War Council at 124 East 28th street, Mr. Schwab said:

"Every day brings news from the front that encourages us in our task and makes the outlook for victory brighter. We here at home have never even considered the possibility of defeat. Why? Because we know that the incomparable men of America who are fighting our battles for us cannot be beaten. How encouraging, how restful to feel this supreme confidence.

"But let us look at this thing from the other side. What do the boys over there feel about our unity and our willingness to meet the sacrifices and give the support necessary to win. Do they feel the same confidence that we, back home, will exert every effort and meet every sacrifice, cheerfully and willingly, that may be necessary? Can these boys fight the same if they have doubts as to the ability of their supporting line to stand the strain?

"Let our fighting men have no doubts. Give them the right to the same confidence in us that we feel in them! Let us support this splendid work of the United War Work Campaign, so necessary to build up the morale of our armies in the field. The National Catholic War Council offers a medium through which this campaign can be aided. It should be given all support possible."

DO NOT EXPECT BOY HOME THE DAY BATTLE CEASES

MYRON T. HERRICK, FORMER AMBASSADOR TO FRANCE, SAYS DEMOBILIZATION WILL TAKE MONTHS.

CRITICAL PERIOD FOR BOYS

United War Work Campaign Fund Must Reach $250,000,000 to Supply Needs of Boys, Official Asserts.

New York, Nov. 5.—"Don't expect to see your boy come marching off the boat the week after the Germans surrender," said Myron T. Herrick, former Ambassador to France in an interview yesterday. "It took us a good while to accustom ourselves to the idea of a long war; we must begin now to accustom ourselves to the thought that the process of winding up a war is also long and painful; and that whether peace comes next Spring or Summer or even before, we shall still have our boys over there for a long time."

Governor Herrick was speaking with reference to the United War Work Campaign, set for November 11-18, combining the appeals of the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council (K. of C.), Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association and the Salvation Army. The amount sought is $250,000,000 and in Governor Herrick's judgment this total, and more will be necessary to see the boys of the army and navy through to their homes again.

"It must never be said of America that she left the slightest detail of her great task uncompleted," continued Governor Herrick. "Only those of us who have been in France, and seen the terrible cost of her great sacrifice, can realize what a stupendous problem in reconstruction and rehabilitation is facing her. In this task America must have a part; and the American boys over there are willing and eager to help. It is our duty to stand behind them while they are standing behind the French."

"Whether victory comes next year or even sooner, there will be weeks and months of inactivity for the armies during the peace discussions; and other months of waiting for demobilization. These will be, in many ways, the most critical period of the war for our boys. They will have leisure—and we must see to it that the wholesome entertainment which the War Work Agencies have provided is continued with increasing effectiveness. They will want to study and to get back into touch with business thought and life."

"It has been the privilege of the seven great war work agencies to represent the American home, and church and theatre and gymnasium and library and club in France. The influence of these great institutions will be needed in an even greater degree from now on. Let us, as a thanksgiving for the promise of victory, make the United War Work Campaign the greatest success of any campaign of its kind."

"Every one of us engaged in manufacturing, whether an employer or employee, is already thinking about the problems of readjustment. But we must not forget that the boys over there are to have their period of readjustment, their months of waiting to be brought back here. 'We have stood by them generously so far; let us see the task through to the end. Until the last man is landed safe home again, we must stand by. Let us do it by putting the United War Work Campaign over the top.'"

FATHER FRANCIS F. DUFFY LAUDS WAR RELIEF WORK

Best Known and Loved American Chaplain in France Says Soldiers Could Not Do Without Assistance of Accredited Agencies.

Paris, Oct. 17. (By Mail)—Father Francis Patrick Duffy, best-known and loved American Chaplain in France, after months of continuous campaigning with what was the old Sixty-ninth New York, recently met and old acquaintance, formerly a New York newspaper man. The latter tried to induce Father Duffy to tell some of his experiences under fire of interest to his friends in Manhattan, but the famous Chaplain had what he considered a more important matter to discuss. In mentioning that the Liberty Loan drive was to be followed by the United War Work Campaign, the correspondent asked Father Duffy what he, the Catholic Chaplain of a ninety per cent Irish regiment thought of the work of the Y. M. C. A. in France.

"I do not know what we would do without it," answered Father Duffy, promptly. "My observation of the work of the Y. M. C. A. has been that it is wonderfully efficient. Its co-ordination with other war work is beyond criticism. Every American should give it financial and moral support."

Chaplain Duffy voiced the opinion of unity which has knitted the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., K. of C., Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association and Salvation Army into one body for service to our fighters in France and identified these organizations with the National Catholic War Council and War Camp Community Service for work here.

SANDELL'S BANK

Not All See Foreign Service.

The following composed by a soldier at Camp Custer, who is working in the office work connected with the National army, has been sent in to this office by Walter W. Ireland, a son of Mrs. Nellie Ireland, of this city. "Tom" as he is generally and familiarly known here, is one of the boys who, instead of being sent across for overseas duty, was picked out for an office position at Camp Custer. Evidently, the men engaged in this work would rather be doing some of the fighting over across where the real things are doing:

"Yes, Your Daddy Fought the Hun. Son."

When you reach the age of forty With a young son on your knee; And the little youngster asks you: "Dad, a story tell to me."

"Tell me 'bout the war, Dad And how the Yankees won; Tell me of the part you played And of the things you done."

The youngster looks you in the eye, You know not what to say; As your thoughts are turning backward To that one eventful day.

When the draft board called your number And you felt so proud and gay, As you marched along with others To the camp so far away.

Then you started into drilling With your heart right in the game; As you toiled and labored daily For promotion, boy, to gain.

How you longed to fill an opening In the 85th each day; How you sighed to be among them As they proudly marched away.

Each day you thought that you'd be called To go to France with them; Each day you figured you would be A Man among Men.

But when the 85th had gone And you were left to stay; You wiped the tears from off your cheek And cursed and cursed the day.

You ever learned your A B C's That dog-gone alphabet; That caused you to remain in camp And puff your cigarette.

One day the captain called you, He placed a pencil in your hand; He ordered you to drill in The Pencil Pushing Band.

Then he placed you on allotments And insurance, too, you wrote; Till you felt yourself a worthless God for nothin' bloomin' Blot.

The little youngster's waiting, Wants to hear of what you've done. Till it's p to you to tell him Of your battles with the Hun.

"I fought from early morning, Son, Until the late of night; I bravely pushed my pencil, Son, With all my strength and might."

It's true I never killed a Hun, Neither was I in France, But I helped save many a family Of the Boys who took the chance.

I helped make out allotments, For the needy ones at home; I helped make out insurance For the ones that's left alone.

Your Daddy has the Pencil And he treasures it, my Son, That wrote many million dollars 'Gainst protection from the Hun.

I'm proud to say I done my bit For the boys that were abroad; Though I was only a Pusher In the Pencil Pushing Squad.
